

Need Free Help With Homework?

The

at 485 Twelve Bridges Drive has free homework coaches throughout the school year and several free resources online!

Homework Center begins September 6!

Every TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY from 2:45-4:45 PM throughout the school year, the Lincoln Public Library offers FREE HOMEWORK COACHES in our Homework Center to help students in grades 1-8 with their homework.* Our Homework Coaches are volunteers, mostly high school students or former teachers. Make going to the Homework Center a part of your weekly routine throughout the school year or feel free to drop-in as needed. No sign-up necessary.

*Subject to holiday closures.

Free Online Resources!

From the library's website, you can access LIVE ON-LINE TUTORING for free from 1PM – 10 PM, seven days a week with your Lincoln Public Library card.

Also check out our other online resources available with your library card to help with research reports, learning programs, databases, and book suggestions for kids who are not sure what to read next!

For more information call the library at (916) 434-2410 or visit www.libraryatlincoln.org.
